Larson-Juhl canvas float frames are an essential addition to your moulding selection. Their simple, classic design creates a “floating” effect that both protects and elevates works on canvas without covering the artwork. Larson-Juhl offers a variety of colors and textures, allowing for customizable styles. With sustainably sourced White Ash and Beech substrates and designed to work with both our popular 38mm and 30mm stretcher bars, these frames are easy to assemble and ensure a professional finish.
